A HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE – THE 1930's!

Four Fabulous Sundays: from 1 – 4 pm
November 27th, December 4th, 11th & 18th

Admission is free; donations gratefully accepted

Santa will greet you at the beautiful Dutch sandstone homestead of the Orangetown Historical Museum & Archives that is the Salyer House at 213 Blue Hill Road in Pearl River, NY for a Holiday Open House – the 1930's! Dressed up with decorative greens and charming hand made decorations, let the museum show you how the holidays were celebrated in the 1930's. Times may have been tough, but the residents of Orangetown knew how to create some winter magic. With a holiday tree, vintage toys and photographs from the area we invite you to enjoy a cup of mulled cider, some ginger cookies and local history with us. On December 4th from 2-3 pm the duet of Devin Klos & Kristin Fiore will delight with a reading of The Night Before Christmas and traditional holiday songs. On December 11th from 2-3 pm the St. Thomas Aquinas Choir will present a beautiful choral program. With Santa in attendance and a song in the air, the museum cordially invites you to a sentimental celebration sure to start your holiday off right. The museum's permanent exhibits – A SPY IN OUR MIDST -MAJ. JOHN ANDRE and OUR DUTCH SANDSTONE HOUSES will be on view, adding a note of history to the festivities. Open to the public on these four fabulous Sundays: November 27th, December 4th, 11th & 18th from 1 – 4 pm at the Historic Salyer House, 213 Blue Hill Road, Pearl River, NY 10965. Friends, neighbors, elves & scout tours are encouraged.
