PUBLIC PORTION

Supervisor Kleiner apologized for the lack of publication re: Aluf Plastics. Supervisor Kleiner spoke about the Town of Orangetown acquiring RPC last Wednesday. Town of Orangetown is now the official owner of Rockland Psychiatric Center property. Supervisor Kleiner also spoke about the requests from the Volunteer Fire Departments for apartments in the RPC property. There will be a private meeting with the Chiefs to start the process needed to secure housing for present and future volunteers. Kids Corner, Broadacres Golf Course and Affordable Housing will be addressed in the near future. February 14th will be the final day for RFP's.

John Sccardi gave final comments regarding the Comprehensive Plan. A discussion took place between the Board and Mr. Sccardi regarding suggestions needed for a more clear and concise plan that would be easier to understand. An updated color-coordinated map for zoning was requested.

Genevieve Coffey, Pearl River, feels that the Town is not addressing the buffer problems caused by builders.

Tom Quinlan, Pearl River, spoke of chair of Planning Board he is in favor of Mr. Dell who he feels has all the qualifications. Mr. Bond did not complete the course.

Estel Baitler, Sparkill, stressed the need for sidewalks along Route 340 by Thorpe Village and hopes this can be done through a grant.

Marilyn Timburger, also expressed her concern for sidewalks along Route 340 and presented to the Town Board signatures that agrees with this request.

Ruth Weber, Grandview, concerns of the Upper Grandview Associations and the clear cutting being done on Tweed Blvd. Escrow Accounts versus scoff law builders and Mrs. Weber believes the Building Department is nor complying with the codes and enforcement. Mrs. Weber presented a written document from the final Planning Board Decision.

Supervisor Kleiner discussed White Pines verses Spruce Trees. John Giardiello agreed that the trees must be changed but must return to ACABOR to have permission to change these trees. Ruth Weber is not in agreement with this statement, ACABOR can make recommendations but not decisions and the Planning Board minutes indicate this was a flawed drawing. John Giardiello explained that the builder would not receive a CO or escrow. Town Board requested a written response from John Giardiello to better understand this predicament.

Eileen Larkin, Palisades, agrees with the choice for Chair of the Planning Board. Eileen Larkin spoke on the importance of the committee re: clean water. The next meeting will address the Millennium Pipeline and how it will affect Rockland County, specifically Orangetown. Dr. Yarmus's report indicated the Pipeline will go across marshes and Mrs. Larkin believes all alternatives suggested by the State are not acceptable to Rockland. She also agrees that we need sidewalks along Route 340.

Betsy Brenner, Orangeburg, is in favor of Senior Housing but questioned Mercedes Property and the need for open space. If ARC were to go ahead with this purchase Mrs. Brenner suggests they do something for the Town of Orangetown perhaps a Town Pool. Orangetown residents' needs must be met. However, at the meeting some people were not from Orangetown.

Trish Moran, Pearl River, questioned February 14th and the opening of the RFP's. Councilman Troy advised that within two weeks they would hope to make a decision re: planners.

Councilman Fisher asked about the CDA - was this signed and could the Town Board have a copy.

Councilman O'Donnell spoke about the Orangeburg pipe that is breaking down at an alarming rate and the damage as well as costs to our residents. He asked that a resolution be passed by the Town Board to absorb the costs. Supervisor Kleiner said that these costs could be substantial to the Town and believes Mr. Beckerle needs to do a project that will give the cost to the Town Board. Approximately 12 parcels fail a year and 2,500 properties have fiber pipes. One suggestion would be that, areas that are affected pay a yearly fee and this would act as an insurance policy. Bob Beckerle asked for 30 days in order to obtain the records of homes that would have Orangeburg pipe. Councilman Fisher asked how other Towns pay for this.

John Duffy, asked the Town Board to remember the residents or victims that already paid out of pocket for repairs of these pipes.
