Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America: Esta Baitler.

The Blauvelt, Orangeburg, Palisades and Tappan Libraries present their 2018 Budgets.

Summary of Public Comments:

Marshall Weiss, Pearl River, requested two parking meters be changed to 30 mins. Deborah Stuhlweissenburg, Tappan; Kenyatta Arietta, W. Nyack; Thomas Quinn, Tappan; Chris Day, Orangeburg; Mike Mandel, Pearl River; Bob Schelin, Tappan; Pete Byrne, Orangeburg; Robert Dell, Tappan; and Thom Kleiner, Sparkill are in favor of Jane Slavin being appointed Director of OBZPAE. She has excellent and great character, good people skills and very professional and she is committed to the Orangetown community.

Jim Riley, Community Advocate, - a religious Eruv is an enclosure of a number of private and public properties into one larger designated "private domain". Eruvs generate great concerns (over-building, bloc voting, public school derogation etc) and could migrate into adjoining communities. The Town Board needs to declare a short legal moratorium, while it explores a possible local law. Hopefully, by this action, it will prevent dangerous disputes between people and groups defending their legal rights.

Frank Fornario, Blauvelt, spoke about the effects of an Equalization Rate. Taxes will increase next year. He hopes the Town will be proactive in keeping this rate low.

Mike Maiorano, CSEA – the position of Assistant Operator Grade 2 (Wastewater) does not exist in the Town, according to the CSEA Contract. This position should be reposted as Assistant Plant Operator II.

Chris Day, Orangeburg, spoke about signage in public right of ways. The Town Board needs to make sure the laws are written properly and up to date.

Esta Baitler, Sparkill, suggested the Town get the bus shelters from RPC and place them along Route 340.

Mike Mandel, Pearl River – tax certioraris resolutions should always include the name of the school district. He is highly insulted that a Town Board member has accused him of being part of a group that constantly attacks the Town Board. His suggestions and comments are his own. Amy Pritchett, Pearl River - how are the complaints regarding Aluf being handle, what is the Town's next step with Aluf and what is consider a public nuisance.

Bonnie D'Amato, Orangeburg, spoke about sewer lines and wants to know why the financial burden to repair them is the homeowner's responsibility.

Krystof Witek, CleanAir4Orangetown, spoke about all the volunteer citizens' hard work, time and energy in fighting for healthy air quality.

Robert Dell, Tappan – I am here officially on behalf of Post VFW 1615 and also as liaison for the Town and Project Manager, for the Walkway of American Heroes. The Walkway memorializes citizen soldiers that have a blood tie to Orangetown.

Tanya Witek, Tappan, claims Aluf has been mishandled for decades and the correction process is taking too long. They are still violating Town codes. She is concerned about other manufacturing plants polluting the air.

John Buckley, Orangeburg, spoke about all of the benefits the Orangeburg Library offers and supports their 2018 Budget.

Barbara Delo, Blauvelt, concerned about seniors' safety. She asked the Town Board to consider their needs and initiate a senior awareness program.

Thom Kleiner, Sparkill - the Director of OBZPAE is a huge job. The Town Board should consider a Deputy.

Dimitri Laddis, Piermont, spoke about how the Town Board is supposed to protect the residents and the Town Board's ethical conduct. Has any codes or laws been passed to protect Orangetown?
