3. The burden of establishing his/her qualifications to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Personnel shall be upon the applicant. Any applicant who refuses to permit the Commissioner of Personnel to investigate matters necessary for the verification of his/her qualifications or who otherwise hampers, impedes, or fails to cooperate with the Commissioner of Personnel in such investigation shall be disqualified for examination, certification, and/or appointment as circumstances warrant.
4. Disqualification on any of the above grounds may be made prior to or after a candidate's taking of an examination and whether or not such candidate received a passing score on such examination.
5. An applicant who fails to meet the established qualifications for the position concerned shall be disqualified for temporary and provisional as well as for permanent appointment to such position, provided, however, that the Commissioner of Personnel may in his/her discretion allow a temporary appointment pending the conclusion of an investigation of the applicant's qualifications.

RULE IX

EXAMINATIONS

1. Examinations prepared and rated by the State Civil Service Department
 - a. For examinations prepared and rated by the State Civil Service Department and used by Rockland County Department of Personnel, the provisions of the rules and regulations of the State Civil Service Commission and Department shall govern the rating of examinations, the review of examination papers by candidates and the filing of appeals.
 - b. The State Civil Service Commission shall have sole and exclusive authority to correct any errors in rating upon appeal or otherwise.
2. Examinations prepared and/or rated by the Rockland County Department of Personnel
 - a. The Commissioner of Personnel shall adopt a system to conceal the identity of the candidates' papers in a written examination until such written examination has been rated.
 - b. Rating keys shall be prepared for each examination held. Such keys shall be a permanent part of the record of each examination. The marking of an examination shall be made on the scale of 100, with 70 the passing score. The Commissioner of Personnel may, after the announcement of an examination is made, subdivide the written examination into parts in order that candidates be considered further for eligibility. Notice of such arrangements shall be given in the instructions of the written examination.
 - c. Applications and examination records and papers of candidates shall be preserved until at least six months after the expiration of the eligible list resulting from such examination, but in no event may records be destroyed except in accordance with the policies of the State Commissioner of Education and the State Civil Service Commission. Whenever an oral test shall be prescribed as part of an examination, a stenographic or recording device record of all the questions and answers shall be made a part of the examination records.
 - d. Every candidate in an examination shall be notified in writing of his/her final rating. Except for continuous recruitment examinations, he/she shall also, if successful, be notified of his/her relative position on any eligible list established as a result of the examination.

2. Examinations prepared and/or rated by the Rockland County Department of Personnel (continued)
 - e. Except for candidates in continuous recruitment examinations, any candidate receiving such notice may inspect his/her examination papers in the office of the Commissioner of Personnel and in the presence of a designated representative of the Commissioner provided he/she makes his/her request for such inspection, in writing, within ten (10) days of the date of the postmark of such notice. The examination papers of a candidate shall be exhibited only to the candidate.
 - f. A candidate who wishes to appeal to the Commissioner of Personnel from his/her rating in one, or more, or all of the subjects of an examination must submit such appeal in writing within twenty days after the earliest date on which his/her examination papers were made available for his/her inspection. Such appeal must show that a manifest error was made in the original rating. Such appeal shall be considered as opening all of the candidate's papers for review, whether resulting in a higher or lower average standing. No change in rating shall be made as a result of an appeal unless it shall affect the candidate's relative position on the eligible list.
 - g. Reviews of examinations conducted on a continuous recruitment basis and reviews of examinations prepared by the State Department of Civil Service which are decentralized for local administration and rating shall be limited to a computational check of the candidates' answers against the key answers. Upon the request of a candidate, the Commissioner of Personnel shall have the candidate's test paper(s) rescored, verify the accuracy of his/her score, and notify the candidate in writing. There shall be no reviews of practical or performance examinations.

3. Examinations generally

- a. The Commissioner of Personnel may at any time during the life of an eligible list, resulting from any examination whether or not prepared and rated by the Commissioner of Personnel, except as provided above in 1.b., correct any clerical or computational errors in the ratings of candidates who competed in the examination. If, during the life of an eligible list, investigation reveals that an individual placed thereon did not possess the qualifications required for admission to the examination, the name of such individual may be removed from the eligible list, provided, however, that such individual be given notice in writing prior to such action, specifying the reasons such action is being taken and affording the individual an opportunity to submit facts in opposition to such removal.
- b. Any change in an eligible list pursuant to this Rule shall be made without prejudice to the status of any person previously appointed from such eligible list.

RULE X

ELIGIBLE LISTS

1. Every candidate who attains a passing mark in an examination as a whole and who meets the standards prescribed, if any, for separate subjects or parts of subjects of the examination shall be eligible for appointment to the position for which he/she was examined and his/her name shall be entered on the eligible list in the order of his/her final rating; but if two or more eligibles receive the same final rating in the examination, including the award of veterans and/or seniority credits, if any, they shall be ranked in accordance with such uniform, impartial procedure as may be prescribed therefor by the Commissioner of Personnel.
2. The date of the establishment of a list shall be the date fixed therefor by the Commissioner of Personnel and shall be entered on such list. The duration of each eligible list shall be fixed by the Commissioner of Personnel prior to its establishment but shall not be less than one nor more than four years. The date of establishment of a list and its duration shall be given to all successful candidates at the time when notice of standing on the eligible list is given to such candidates. When the duration of an eligible list is fixed at less than four years, the Commissioner of Personnel may, prior to the expiration date of such list, extend the duration of the list up to the maximum limitation of four years, provided that eligibles on such list are notified in writing of the extension of the eligible list.
3. Eligible lists shall be open to public inspection at the office of the Commissioner of Personnel. The names of persons who failed to receive a passing grade on the examination shall not be disclosed to the public.
4. The Commissioner of Personnel shall have power in his/her discretion to correct any error and amend any eligible list where it appears that an error has been made. The Commissioner of Personnel shall have power to revoke any eligible list where the provisions of these Rules and/or the Civil Service Law were not properly or sufficiently carried out, provided, however, that an eligible list shall not be revoked except after notice and an opportunity to be heard has been given to all persons whose names appear thereon. The reasons for such action shall be recorded on the eligible list and reported to the State Civil Service Commission.

RULE XI

CERTIFICATION

1. Determination of appropriate eligible list

The Commissioner of Personnel shall determine the eligible list most nearly appropriate for the position to be filled and shall certify to the appointing authority a sufficient number of eligibles from which selection for appointment may be made. When the name of any eligible is included in a certification for appointment the names of all other eligibles on the list having the same final rating as such eligible shall likewise be included in such certification.

2. Duration of validity of a certification

A certification issued by the Commissioner of Personnel to an appointing authority shall be valid for a period of 45 days from the date of its issuance, except that such period shall be 30 days in the case of a certification from a continuous recruitment list and shall be 90 days in the case of certifications from open competitive eligible lists for law enforcement and correctional positions. After the expiration of such period, no appointment shall be made except from a new certification, provided, however, that the Commissioner of Personnel may extend the life of the certification for an additional such period provided there has been no change in the ranking or composition of the eligibles in the range certified.

3. Effect of failure of eligible to reply positively to canvass

- a. When an eligible is canvassed for appointment or is offered appointment in writing and fails to state his/her willingness to accept such appointment within seven business days after the mailing of such canvass or offer, he/she may be considered ineligible for purposes of making selection for such particular appointment.
- b. The name of any eligible who fails to reply to an offer of or canvass for appointment, or who fails to report for a scheduled interview, or who declines or otherwise indicates unwillingness to accept appointment under the conditions offered to all other eligibles, or who fails to report for work after accepting an offer of appointment, may be withheld from further certification from the eligible list. Notice shall be given to any such eligible whose name has thus been withheld. The name of such eligible may again be certified upon his/her own request, or upon the request of any appointing authority, and the submission in writing to the Commissioner of Personnel by such eligible of reasons satisfactory to the Commissioner for his/her declination or failure to reply or to report for interview or to accept appointment or to report to work.

- c. The name of an eligible declining appointment in a particular civil division or jurisdiction because of the geographical location of such civil division or jurisdiction or because of insufficient compensation offered may nevertheless continue to be certified for appointment to other civil divisions or jurisdictions which meet the geographical and/or minimum compensation requirements of such eligible. An eligible may modify such requirements for subsequent certification at any time by informing the Commissioner of Personnel in writing.

4. Selection of one in three

Except as otherwise provided herein, appointment or promotion to a position in the competitive class shall be made by the selection of a person on the most nearly appropriate eligible list who is willing to accept such appointment and whose final rating in the examination is equal to or higher than the rating of the third highest ranking eligible on the list indicating willingness to accept such appointment. The term "ranking" as used herein refers to the order in which the names of eligibles appear on the eligible list as provided in Rule X.

5. Increase in salary prohibited

Whenever one or more eligibles shall have declined any appointment offered for reason of salary and an eligible, whose relative standing is lower and who was reachable on the certification only because of the aforesaid declination, shall have been appointed to the position, the salary or compensation of such appointee shall not be increased, except by a service or a class-wide increase, within a period of six months after his/her appointment beyond that offered to the persons so declining.

6. Certification without competitive examination

- a. Whenever a vacancy exists in a position in the competitive class and an open competitive examination duly announced results in three or fewer approved applicants for the examination, the appointing officer may nominate to the Commissioner of Personnel one of the applicants who may be certified to fill the vacancy without further examination, provided that such applicant has already qualified in an examination appropriate to the duties and responsibilities of the position within the last four years from the date of nomination.
- b. Whenever a vacancy exists in a position in the competitive class and an open competitive examination duly advertised results in three or fewer approved applicants, and the announced minimum qualifications for the position included a requirement of possession of a license or certificate in a profession issued by the State of New York, the Commissioner of Personnel may waive the examination and certify for appointment to the appointing authority the names of such qualified applicants, provided, however, that such applicants have been licensed or certified in the profession by the State of New York.
- c. Whenever no more than two names appear on the open competitive eligible list for appointment to a position or upon the receipt of the results of an open competitive examination wherein no candidates passed the appropriate examination, the appointing authority may nominate a qualified individual for appointment, and such nominee, upon passing an examination appropriate to the duties and responsibilities of the position, may be appointed; or the Commissioner of Personnel may designate the eligible list, if there be one, as a continuing eligible list in accordance with Section 57 of the Civil Service Law, and insert therein the names of additional eligibles as they are found qualified by examinations held at such intervals as may be prescribed.

RULE XII

SPECIAL CLASSES OF APPOINTMENTS

1. Trainee appointments

- a. The Commissioner of Personnel may require that permanent appointments or promotions to designated positions shall be conditioned upon the satisfactory completion of a term of service as a Trainee in such position or in an appropriate lower training title, or upon the completion of specified training or academic courses, or both. The period of such term of training shall be as prescribed by the Commissioner of Personnel. Upon satisfactory completion of such training term, and of specified courses if required, an appointee shall be entitled to full permanent status in the position for which appointment was made. Any appointment hereunder shall be subject to such probationary period as prescribed in these Rules, provided, however, that the employment of a Trainee may be discontinued at any time if his/her conduct, capacity, or fitness is not satisfactory, or if he/she fails to pursue or continue satisfactorily such training or academic courses as may have been required.
- b. For the purposes of this Rule, appointment or promotion to a position where by statute or rule the State of New York has prescribed certain in-service training requirements for appointees thereto shall be considered as Trainee appointments. The term of training shall conform to the maximum time prescribed by statute or rule for successful completion of required training programs.

2. Seasonal, substitute, and/or relief appointments

- a. A seasonal, substitute, or relief employee shall qualify for appointment in the same manner as would a full-time competitive class employee in the title when the full position title is in the competitive class and when any one of the following conditions of employment is met:
 - (1) The employee is to work, or is permitted to work, more than three consecutive months on other than a part-time basis as defined in these rules;
 - (2) The employee is to work, or is permitted to work, six months or more on a cumulative basis during any fiscal year on other than a part-time basis as defined herein;

2. Seasonal, substitute, and/or relief appointments (continued)

- (3) The employee is to work, or is permitted to work, on a cumulative basis during any fiscal year, half or more of the total number of hours that a regular full-time employee in his or her title would normally work in such fiscal year.
- b. A seasonal, substitute, or relief employee shall qualify for appointment in the same manner as a non-competitive class employee when the full position title is in the non-competitive class or when it is in the competitive class and none of the three conditions of employment set forth above in paragraph a. is met.
- c. For the purpose of computing time to be served in a probationary status, only the days actually worked will be utilized in computing the minimum and maximum periods of probationary service prescribed elsewhere in these rules. Five (5) days, whether full or part-time, shall be deemed equivalent to one week.
- d. Any agency utilizing seasonal, substitute, and/or relief employees appointed pursuant to paragraph b. above shall report quarterly in writing to the Commissioner of Personnel the number of hours and days worked by each such employee.
- e.
 - (1) Failure of a seasonal, substitute, or relief employee to report for duty upon due notice to said employee and failure of such employee to explain in writing to the appointing authority the reasons for not reporting for duty as directed within ten (10) days thereof shall be deemed to be an unqualified resignation by the employee, effective upon the date of notification;
 - (2) Nothing herein shall be deemed to excuse the failure of an employee to report for duty when so directed nor to waive any rights the appointing authority may have to take appropriate disciplinary action with respect to such failure.
- f. A copy of this Rule shall be provided to each seasonal, substitute, or relief employee by his/her appointing authority.

RULE XIII*

CONTINGENT PERMANENT STATUS

1. A vacant permanent position in any civil division which is encumbered by the leave of absence of the permanent incumbent thereof may be filled on a contingent permanent basis upon the request of the appropriate appointing authority by appointment or promotion from an eligible list certified as appropriate for filling the position, provided that such appointee be among the top three ranking eligibles willing to accept such appointment.
2. In accordance with the provisions of Section 64(4) of the Civil Service Law, an employee holding a position on a contingent permanent basis shall have the rights and be subject to the conditions herein stated.
 - a. Any such employee who upon his/her contingent permanent appointment holds a permanent appointment in another position in the same civil division under the same appointing authority shall be deemed to be on leave of absence from such position while on contingent permanent status in his/her new position. He/she may, at his/her election and after reasonable notice, be restored to his/her permanent position at any time during such leave of absence and shall be restored to such position upon the return from leave of the incumbent to his/her position and shall also be restored to such position in the event of the elimination of the position to which he/she was contingently appointed.
 - b. Contingent permanent status shall not adversely affect or impair such an individual's eligibility for permanent appointment or promotion to such vacancies as may occur for which he/she is otherwise eligible including appointment from the eligible list from which he/she received the contingent permanent appointment during the life of such list.
 - c. He/She shall be deemed to hold his/her position on a permanent basis for the purposes of Section 75 of the Civil Service Law but shall be deemed to hold his/her position only on a temporary basis for the purposes of Section 80 of such law.
 - d. A contingent permanent appointee may only participate in a promotion examination on the basis of such employee's permanent civil service status, if any, immediately preceding the examination date. Appropriate contingent permanent service shall be credited as permanent service in meeting length of service requirements, provided, however, that seniority credit shall be given only from the date of appropriate permanent appointment in the classified service of the municipality or civil division in which employed.

- e. An individual who has served at least six (6) consecutive months in contingent permanent status shall, upon termination of such status by the return from leave of the permanent incumbent of the position or by the abolition of the position held, be eligible for permanent reinstatement to such position whether in the same or another civil division under the same conditions as though he/she had held such position on a permanent basis.
 - f. An employee in contingent permanent status may transfer to any other similar vacant position which is encumbered by the leave of absence of the permanent incumbent thereof, provided that such transfer is otherwise permissible under these Rules.
 - g. When a contingent permanent appointment matures into a permanent appointment, the date of permanent service shall be the date of the original contingent permanent appointment.
 - h. In the event a preferred eligible list is established in the same or comparable title as that of the contingent permanent employee and is applicable to the department or agency in which he/she is employed, the civil service status of each such contingent permanent employee there shall be changed to temporary during the effective life of the preferred list. However, when the preferred eligible list is exhausted insofar as that department or agency is concerned, any such employee shall be restored to contingent permanent status. In the event of subsequent displacement by the return of the permanent incumbent of the position or by the appointment of a preferred list eligible, the period of such temporary service by the former contingent permanent employee shall be credited for reinstatement purposes under paragraph 2.e. of this Rule as though it were contingent permanent service.
3. The probationary term of an employee appointed pursuant to this Rule shall be governed by Rule XVI of these Rules and shall be deemed to have begun as of the date of his/her contingent permanent appointment.

RULE XIV

EFFECT OF TEMPORARY OR PROVISIONAL
APPOINTMENT ON STATUS OF APPOINTEE

1. Effect of temporary appointment on eligibility for permanent appointment

The acceptance by an eligible of a temporary appointment shall not affect his/her standing on the eligible list for a permanent appointment, nor shall the period of temporary service be counted as part of the probationary service in the event of subsequent permanent appointment.

2. Provisional appointment of permanent employee

- a. When a permanent employee is given a provisional appointment to a competitive class position in the same department or agency, the position thus vacated by him/her shall not be filled on other than a temporary or contingent permanent basis pending his/her reinstatement thereto upon failure of his/her provisional appointment to mature into permanent appointment.
- b. Such provisional appointee may return to his/her permanent position at any time during provisional term of appointment by providing written notice to the appointing authority requesting to be returned to such permanent position. The appointing authority shall return such provisional appointee to his/her permanent position within fifteen days of receipt of such written notice.

3. Effect of refusal or failure to take scheduled examination

- a. A provisional employee who has refused to take or without justifiable cause has failed to appear for a scheduled examination for permanent employment shall be terminated no later than two months from the date of such refusal or failure. No such provisional employee shall be given another provisional appointment in the same or comparable position or title until a period of three years shall have elapsed after such refusal or failure.
- b. No individual who, as a provisional employee, has twice failed an examination for permanent appointment shall be given another provisional appointment in the same or comparable position or title until a period of two years shall have elapsed since the most recent failure or a period of three years since the penultimate failure whichever shall be the longer period.

4. Certification to fill vacancies created by reclassification

An open competitive eligible list shall not be certified for filling a permanent competitive class vacancy created by reclassification of a permanently encumbered competitive class position if appointment or promotion from such list would require the layoff of a permanent competitive class employee; but this provision shall not apply if the incumbent whose position was reclassified, following such reclassification, either refused to take an examination for such reclassified position or failed to qualify for appointment, examination, or promotion to the reclassified position.

RULE XV*

PROMOTIONS

1. In no case shall any person be eligible to participate in a promotion examination until he/she has served at least six months on a permanent basis in a lower grade position.
2. Any person who is nominated for non-competitive examination for promotion to a position and who fails to pass two successive examinations for such promotion shall not thereafter be eligible for employment in such position, except by appointment or promotion from an eligible list established following competitive examination.
3. Non-competitive class candidates in a promotion examination held pursuant to Section 52(12) of the Civil Service Law shall be awarded seniority credits in the same manner and to the same extent as are competitive class candidates.
 - a. When a vacancy exists in a permanent competitive class position and a permanent competitive class candidate in direct line of promotion for promotion examination, as defined in these Rules (paragraph 5, below), is nominated for non-competitive promotion examination in accordance with Section 52(7) of the Civil Service Law, the Commissioner of Personnel may determine that the appropriate examination for such non-competitive promotion may consist, in whole or in part, of a review of the candidate's training and experience at the time of nomination.
 - b. If the Commissioner of Personnel determines that such candidate's training and experience meets or exceeds the open competitive qualifications for the position, the candidate shall then be certified as eligible for permanent appointment to the promotional position without further examination but subject to the successful completion of the probationary term as prescribed in these Rules.
5. Definition of "Direct Line of Promotion for Promotion Examination".

A "direct line of promotion for promotion examination", as determined by the Commissioner of Personnel, shall be among persons with permanent status in a position under the appointing authority for which a vacant position exists in a lower grade in the same type of position to be filled. A position title deemed to be in "direct line of promotion for promotion examination" shall meet all of the following requirements:

- a. The position title must include a key word or words that are also included in related titles in higher and lower salary grades. Key words characterize the essential functions of the position title and represent the core occupation and the fundamental purpose for which the position exists.

*Formerly Rule XII; renumbered, effective 1.9.70.

- b. There shall be a hierarchical relationship (as would be depicted on an organizational chart) between position titles in higher and lower salary grades within the “direct line of promotion for promotion examination.”
- c. Comparable knowledge, skills, and abilities shall be required for higher and lower level titles deemed to be in “direct line of promotion for promotion examination” such that required knowledge, skills, and abilities shall be in mostly related categories.
- d. The knowledge, skills, abilities required for the lower-level title shall provide adequate preparation for the knowledge, skills, and abilities required in a higher-level position title. Adequate preparation shall mean that the required knowledge, skills, and abilities required for lower-level titles in the “direct line of promotion for promotion examination” shall be related to and provide preparation for the performance of the essential duties of the higher-level position title.
- e. The minimum qualifications for the higher-level and lower-level titles in the “direct line of promotion for promotion examination” shall be related such that required training and experience in the lower-level title(s) shall provide adequate preparation for the duties and the knowledge, skills, and abilities required for the higher-level position title.
- f. Lower-level titles in a “direct line of promotion for promotion examination” do not have to be in the next lower salary grade.
- g. Position titles deemed to be in “direct line of promotion for promotion examination” shall be under the same appointing authority.

RULE XVI*

PROBATIONARY TERM

1. Probationary term

- a. Except as otherwise provided, every permanent appointment or promotion to a position in the competitive, non-competitive, or labor class of the classified service shall be for a probationary term of not less than eight nor more than twenty-six weeks, except as otherwise provided herein.
- b. The probationary term for a trainee in a position in which the appointee is required to serve a specified training period in order to meet the minimum qualifications for the position shall run concurrently with the training period established by the Commissioner of Personnel in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1. of Rule XII of these Rules.
- c. The probationary term for all law enforcement positions of any rank to include such positions as police officer, patrol officer, correction officer, and their superior officers through the rank of chief or equivalent shall be not less than twenty-six weeks nor more than one hundred and four weeks.
- d. An appointment shall become permanent upon the retention of the probationer after his/her completion of the maximum period of service or upon earlier written notice to the probationer at any time after the completion of the minimum period of service that his/her probationary term is successfully completed. If the conduct or performance of the probationer is not satisfactory, his/her employment may be terminated at any time after the completion of the minimum period of service and on or before the completion of the maximum period of service. A probationer whose services are to be terminated, shall receive written notice prior to such termination, and copy of such notice shall be sent to the Commissioner of Personnel.
- e. The probationary term for the position titles Caseworker, Social Welfare Examiner, Support Investigator I and Radio Operator I shall not be less than eight nor more than fifty-two weeks.

2. Departmental promotions

A departmental promotion means a promotion from one position to another position on a permanent basis in the classified service under the jurisdiction of the same appointing authority.

*Formerly Rule XIII; renumbered, effective 1.9.70.

2. Departmental promotions (continued)

The probationary term for any such probationer may be shortened or waived entirely by the appointing authority with written concurrence of the probationer. In the event the probationary term is shortened or waived entirely, written notice thereof shall be given to the promotee. A copy of such notice together with a copy of the employee's concurrence shall be sent to the Commissioner of Personnel.

3. Interdepartmental and intergovernmental promotions and transfers

- a. An interdepartmental promotion or transfer means a promotion or transfer within the same municipality or civil division from a position in the classified service under the jurisdiction of one appointing authority to one under another appointing authority. Each such promotion or transfer shall have a probationary term of not less than eight nor more than twenty-six weeks, provided, however, that the gaining appointing authority may shorten or waive the probationary term in the same manner as provided herein for departmental promotions.
- b. An intergovernmental promotion or transfer means a promotion or transfer from a position in the classified service in a municipality or civil division to one in another municipality or civil division, whether or not both governmental entities are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Personnel. No probationary term is required in connection with such promotion or transfer.

4. Restoration to permanent position

When a permanent employee is appointed, promoted, or transferred to a competitive class position or is granted a permanent appointment to a position in the non-competitive or labor class within the same civil division, the position vacated by such employee shall not be filled, except on a temporary basis, during the probationary period required to be served by the employee in such new position. At any time during such probationary term the employee shall have the right to return to his/her previous position at his/her own election. If the conduct or performance of the probationer is not satisfactory, he/she shall be restored to his/her previous permanent position at the end of his/her probationary term.

5. Absence during probationary term

Any periods of authorized or unauthorized absence aggregating up to ten work days during the probationary term, may, in the discretion of the appointing authority, be counted as time served in the probationary term. Any such periods of absence in excess of an aggregate of ten work days shall not be counted as time served in the probationary term. The minimum and maximum periods of the probationary term of any employee shall be extended by the number of work days of his/her absence which, pursuant to this section, are not considered as time served in the probationary term. Nothing in this section shall be construed to except a probationer from the application of paragraph four of Rule XX of these Rules.

5. Absence during probationary term (continued)

6. Report on probationer's service

The probationer's supervisor shall carefully observe his/her conduct and performance and, at least two weeks prior to the end of the probationary term shall report thereon in writing to the proper appointing authority. The supervisor shall also, from time to time during the probationary term, advise the probationer of his/her status and progress. A probationer whose services are to be terminated for unsatisfactory service shall receive written notice and, upon request, shall be granted an interview with the appointing authority or his/her representative.

7. Restoration to eligible list

A probationer whose employment is terminated or who resigns before the end of his/her probationary term may request that his/her name be restored to the eligible list from which he/she was appointed, provided such list is still in existence. His/her name may be restored to such list if the Commissioner of Personnel in his/her discretion determines that the probationer shall be given a second opportunity for appointment.

8. Temporary or provisional service in higher level position

When an employee who has not completed his/her probationary term is appointed on a temporary or provisional basis to a higher level position, the period of temporary or provisional service rendered by such employee in such higher level position, may in the discretion of the appointing authority, be considered as satisfactory probationary service in his/her lower position and may be counted as such in determining the satisfactory completion of such probationary term. At any time after the expiration of the minimum period of the probationary term, or the entire probationary term if it be one of fixed duration, the appointing authority shall, on request of such probationer, furnish its decision in writing as to whether or not service in such higher level position shall be considered as satisfactory probationary service. In the event of an adverse decision by the appointing authority, such probationer, at his/her request, shall be returned to his/her lower position for sufficient time to permit him/her to complete his/her probationary term. The employment of such a probationer in his/her lower position shall not be terminated at the end of his/her probationary term on account of unsatisfactory service unless he/she shall have actually served in such position, in the aggregate, at least the minimum period specified for such probationary term or the entire probationary term if it be one of fixed duration.

8. Temporary or provisional service in higher level position (continued)

9. Removal during probationary term

Nothing contained in this Rule shall be construed to limit or otherwise affect the authority of an appointing authority pursuant to Section 75 of the Civil Service Law or to applicable negotiated disciplinary procedures, at any time during the probationary term, to remove a probationer for incompetency or misconduct. A probationary employee shall not be deemed to have greater tenure rights than an employee who has satisfactorily completed his/her probationary term.

10. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Rules, the appointment or promotion of a police officer or correction officer shall not become permanent unless and until he/she has satisfied such requirements as may be applicable to him/her under Section 209-q of the General Municipal Law or Section 45, subdivision nine, of the Corrections Law, as appropriate. If such officer is promoted to a higher rank for which he/she has met all requirements of eligibility for permanent promotion except training requirements cited above, he/she shall be deemed to be on leave of absence from the lower rank position from which he/she was promoted pending completion of such training. During such period such lower rank position may not be filled except on a contingent permanent or temporary basis. In the event of his/her failure to complete such training successfully within the time allowed therefor, he/she shall be restored to such lower rank position.

11. An employee who is reinstated pursuant to the provisions of Rule XVIII, either in his/her former jurisdiction or in another jurisdiction, shall serve a probationary term of the same duration and in the same manner as though he/she had been appointed, promoted, or transferred to the position in accordance with these Rules.

RULE XVII*

TRANSFERS

1. General conditions and limitations

Any individual having permanent competitive class status in a position may be permanently transferred to another competitive class position subject to these Rules, provided that in addition to the conditions and limitations prescribed by statute or in other provisions of these Rules, transfers shall be subject to the following requirements:

- a. A transfer may be allowed only if it is impracticable to fill the position to which transfer is sought by promotion from among persons holding lower grade positions in the department or agency in which such position exists.
- b. A transfer may not be made to a position for which a preferred list containing the name of an eligible willing to accept reinstatement to such position exists.
- c. Every transfer shall require the consent, in writing, of the transferee and of the prospective appointing authority.
- d. Where both the position to which and the position from which transfer is sought fall under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Personnel, an employee may not, during the life of the eligible list from which he/she was appointed or for at least one year, whichever is the longer, be transferred unless he/she would be eligible for appointment in the new position from such eligible list if his/her name were to be returned to said list.
- e. The prospective transferee holds a position to which he/she was appointed from an eligible list resulting from an examination prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service which examination is or would be appropriate for filling the position to which transfer is sought.
- f. The Commissioner of Personnel has determined that the examinations' scopes and qualifications for the positions held and to which appointment is sought are comparable in that they would involve essential tests and qualifications the same as or greater than those of the position to which transfer is sought.
- g. The Commissioner of Personnel has determined that such transfer is for the good of the service and has approved the transfer.

2. Transfer of personnel upon transfer of function

a. Application

This Rule shall apply only to the transfer of functions between two or more appointing authorities within a single civil division under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Personnel.

b. Procedure

- 1) Upon the adoption of a local law, resolution, budget, executive order, or other action directing the transfer of a function from the jurisdiction of one appointing authority to that of another within the same civil division, the Commissioner of Personnel shall identify those employees who are substantially engaged in the function to be transferred. All such personnel shall be transferred with the function unless the action directing the transfer specifies otherwise and/or an objection is made as indicated below. Each such employee shall immediately be notified of the impending transfer in writing by the Commissioner of Personnel with copies thereof to the respective appointing authorities.
- 2) Any of the employees or either of the appointing authorities concerned may object to the transfer. Any such objection must be made in writing to the Commissioner of Personnel within seven calendar days of the notice of transfer. In the event that one or more of the employees objects to being transferred and/or either or both the appointing authorities involved object to the transfer of one or more of the employees slated for transfer, the position of each such employee shall be deemed to have been abolished as of the date of transfer of function and the provisions of Rule XXVI herein shall apply, provided, however, that in applying this Rule the transfer of the other employees involved shall be deemed to have occurred before the abolishment of such position or positions.

c. Status of employees transferred

All employees transferred upon the transfer of a function shall retain their respective civil service classifications, rights, status, and seniority in the department, office, or agency to which transferred that they had in the department, office, or agency from which transferred.

RULE XVIII*

REINSTATEMENT

1. A permanent employee who has resigned from his/her position may be reinstated without examination within four years from the date of such resignation in the position from which he/she resigned, if then vacant, or in any vacant position to which he/she was eligible for transfer or reassignment. An employee who is laid off shall be eligible for reinstatement in the same manner as an employee who has resigned.

All reinstatements are subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a. In computing the four-year period within which a person may be reinstated after resignation, the day the resignation takes effect, any time spent in active service in the military or naval forces of the United States or of the state of New York shall not be considered.
- b. Any time served in another position in the Civil Service of the same municipality (i.e., same civil division) shall not be considered in computing the four-year period within which a person may be reinstated after resignation.
- c. For the purpose of this rule, where an employee on leave of absence without pay resigns, such resignation shall be deemed effective as of the date of the commencement of such leave.
- d. The prospective appointing authority must request approval from the Commissioner of Personnel to reinstate an individual.
- e. A reinstatement may not be approved to a position for which a preferred list exists containing the name of an eligible willing to accept appointment.
- f. With the exception of an employee who is being reinstated to his/her former position within one year from resignation, a reinstatement may not be approved to a position for which a promotion eligible list exists containing the names of three or more eligibles willing to accept appointment.
- g. In an exceptional case, the Commissioner of Personnel may, for good cause shown and where the interest of the government would be served, waive the provisions of this rule to permit the reinstatement of a person more than four years after resignation. Reinstatement following a break in service of more than one year must satisfy the following additional conditions:

- (1) The appointing authority must provide documentation or explanation that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Personnel that the individual requested to be reinstated possesses current knowledge, skills, and abilities in the occupational field to which reinstatement is sought.
- (2) If the position to which reinstatement is sought requires successful completion of medical and/or physical agility tests for original appointment, the individual being reinstated must satisfy these criteria immediately prior to reinstatement.

2. Refusal or failure to accept reinstatement from preferred list

a. Relinquishment of eligibility for reinstatement

The failure or refusal of a person on a preferred eligible list, after reasonable notice, to accept reinstatement therefrom to his/her former position, or any similar position in the same salary grade for which such list is certified, shall be deemed to be relinquishment of his/her eligibility for reinstatement, and his/her name shall thereupon be stricken from such preferred list. The name of such person may be restored to such preferred list, and certified to fill such appropriate vacancies as may thereafter occur, only upon the request of such person and his/her submission of reasons satisfactory to the Commissioner of Personnel for his/her previous failure or refusal to accept reinstatement.

b. Effect of refusing to accept reinstatement to a lower grade position

A person on a preferred list shall not be deemed to relinquish his/her eligibility for reinstatement therefrom by reason of his/her failure or refusal to accept reinstatement to a position in a lower salary grade than the position from which he/she was suspended or demoted. The name of such person may be withheld from further certification for reinstatement to a position in the same or a lower salary grade than the position to which he/she failed or refused to accept reinstatement.

c. Restoration to eligibility for reinstatement not to affect previous appointments

The restoration of the name of a person to a preferred list, or his/her restoration to eligibility for certification therefrom to positions in a lower salary grade than his/her former position, shall not invalidate or in any manner adversely affect any appointment, promotion, reinstatement, or demotion previously made to any position to which such person would otherwise have been eligible for reinstatement from such preferred list.

3. A permanent employee who has been laid off from his position due to reorganization or reduction in force, in addition to reinstatement rights pursuant to being on any preferred eligible list, may be reinstated in any jurisdiction other than the one in which layoff occurred, without examination, in the same manner and under the same conditions as an employee who has resigned, provided, however, that the time limitations imposed by Rule XVII, paragraph 1.d., may be waived by the Commissioner of Personnel if deemed to be in the public interest.
4. An individual eligible for reinstatement may be reinstated on a permanent basis to a vacant unencumbered position or on a contingent permanent basis to a vacant encumbered position.

RULE XIX*

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. A leave of absence without pay may be granted by the appointing authority in conformance with the rules and regulations established by the appropriate legislative body or with the provisions of an appropriate labor agreement, provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to authorize any employment beyond the time at which it would otherwise terminate by operation of law, rule, or regulation.
2. A leave of absence without pay, not to exceed four years, shall be granted by an appointing officer to an employee who is a veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States, providing such a leave of absence is for the purpose of taking courses under the educational benefits provided for in Title 38, United States Code or under a New York State Board of Regents War Service Scholarship, Education Law, Section 614. An employee taking such a leave shall be reinstated to his/her position, provided he/she makes application for such reinstatement within sixty days after the termination of his/her courses of study.

RULE XX*

RESIGNATION

1. Resignation in writing

Except as otherwise provided herein, every resignation shall be in writing.

2. Effective date

If no effective date is specified in a resignation, it shall take effect upon delivery to or filing in the office of the appointing authority. If an effective date is specified in a resignation, it shall take effect on such specified date. However, if a resignation is submitted while the employee is on leave of absence without pay, such resignation, for the purpose of determining eligibility for reinstatement, shall be deemed to be effective as of the date of the commencement of such absence. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, when charges of incompetency or misconduct have been or are about to be filed against an employee, the appointing authority may elect to disregard a resignation filed by such employee and to prosecute such charges; and, in the event that such employee is found guilty of such charges and dismissed from the service, his/her termination shall be recorded as a dismissal rather than as a resignation.

3. Withdrawal or amendment

A resignation may not be withdrawn, cancelled, or amended after it is delivered to the appointing authority without the consent of the appointing authority.

4. Unauthorized absence; when deemed a resignation

When an employee who is granted a leave of absence and is notified in writing at the onset of such leave that he/she must return to his/her position within ten work days following the expiration of such leave of absence or forfeit his/her position fails to return to work on the appointed date and fails to submit any explanation whatsoever before the expiration of ten work days therefrom, he/she shall be deemed to have resigned his/her position.

For purposes of determining eligibility for reinstatement any such resignation shall be deemed to be effective as of the date of the commencement of the leave of absence. Nothing herein shall be deemed to excuse the failure of an employee to return to his/her position upon the expiration of an authorized leave of absence and such failure may be regarded as misconduct in an appropriate disciplinary proceeding.

5. Voluntary demotion

A permanent competitive class employee may voluntarily elect to relinquish his/her permanent competitive class status in a position to accept a demotion to a lower level position, provided that a written statement of relinquishment is given to the appointing authority with a copy to the Commissioner of Personnel. Thereafter, the employee may be granted permanent status in any lower competitive class position under the same appointing authority, provided, however, that all the following conditions are met:

- a. There is no existing preferred eligible list for the position for which demotion is sought; and
- b. The employee meets the minimum qualifications established for the position sought; and
- c. The employee has qualified in an examination appropriate to the duties and responsibilities of the position sought or is otherwise eligible for reinstatement to such position pursuant to these Rules; and
- d. The Commissioner of Personnel has reviewed and approved the proposed voluntary demotion.

The statement of relinquishment shall not take effect until the employee has been duly appointed to and granted permanent status in the lower level position. A voluntary demotion pursuant to this Rule shall not be subject to any probationary period.

RULE XXI*

REPORTS OF APPOINTING AUTHORITIES

1. To enable the Commissioner of Personnel to maintain an official roster of the classified service and to certify payrolls as required by law, each appointing authority, from time to time, and upon the date of the official action in each case, shall report to the Commissioner of Personnel as follows:
 - a. Every appointment or employment whether probationary, temporary, or otherwise in the classified service, with the name of the appointee, date of commencement of service, the title, and compensation of the position;
 - b. Every declination of an offer of appointment by a person eligible therefor, with copies of the offer and the reply thereto, if any;
 - c. Every discharge or termination of employment, with the date thereof;
 - d. Every change of compensation in a position, with the date thereof;
 - e. Every promotion, giving positions from which and to which made, with the salaries and date thereof;
 - f. Every transfer, giving the positions from which and to which made, with the date and salaries thereof;
 - g. Every reinstatement in a position, with the date and salary thereof;
 - h. Every leave of absence, with the date and duration thereof;
 - i. Every establishment of a classified service position following its classification or reclassification and prior to or concurrently with its being filled;
 - j. Every suspension, with or without pay, of an employee for disciplinary reasons.

2. Every payroll submitted for civil service certification pursuant to law or these Rules shall contain at the minimum the following information for each employee in the classified service named thereon:
 - a. The period of time covered by the payroll;
 - b. The name of the employee as officially reported to the Commissioner of Personnel;
 - c. The civil service title (or approved title code) of the employee;
 - d. The rate of compensation as reported pursuant to the preceding subdivision of this Rule;
 - e. The gross pay for the employee for the payroll period.

RULE XXII*

CERTIFICATION OF PAYROLLS

1. Extended certifications

- a. The Commissioner of Personnel may certify the employment of persons for the first payment for services in each fiscal year and, if necessary, for the first payment for services in the second half of each fiscal year. No further certification shall be necessary for the payment of salary or compensation to such persons as long as their titles and salary grades remain unchanged during the stated period. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent or preclude the Commissioner of Personnel from terminating or rescinding a certification at any time by giving notice thereof to the appropriate fiscal or disbursing officer.
- b. The Commissioner of Personnel shall require certification of the first payroll of the fiscal year for every town (excluding town Parks and Recreation Departments), village, library and special district under his/her jurisdiction, except school districts. The Commissioner of Personnel shall certify the first full payroll of all town Parks and Recreation Departments under his/her jurisdiction in July of every calendar year and the first full payroll of all school districts under his/her jurisdiction in October of every calendar year.

2. Temporary certifications

When the name of any person is first submitted for certification following his/her appointment, reinstatement, promotion, transfer, or other change in status and the Commissioner of Personnel requires further information or time to enable him/her to make a final determination thereon, the Commissioner of Personnel may certify such person temporarily pending such final determination. In such event, the Commissioner of Personnel shall immediately request the necessary additional information from the appointing authority, who shall furnish the same forthwith. If such information is not furnished promptly, or if the Commissioner of Personnel finds, following receipt of such information, that the employment of such person is not in accordance with the law and these Rules, the Commissioner of Personnel shall immediately terminate such certification by notice to the appointing authority and to the appropriate fiscal or disbursing officer.

3. Refusal or termination of certification

Upon satisfactory evidence of intention to evade the provisions of the law and/or of these Rules in assigning any employee to perform duties other than those for which he/she was examined and certified or under any title not appropriate to the duties to be performed, the Commissioner of Personnel shall refuse certification or terminate a certification previously made and then in force.

RULE XXIII*

POSITION CLASSIFICATION

1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Rule the following definitions shall apply:

“Class” means one or more positions sufficiently similar with respect to duties and responsibilities to be designated by a single descriptive title and treated as a unit for the purpose of recruiting, examinations, establishing salary ranges, and administering other personnel functions.

“Class Title” means the designation given under these Rules to a class and to each position assigned to such class.

“Class Specification” means a formal written statement of the class which defines the distinguishing features, general character and scope of duties and responsibilities of positions in the class, lists typical or illustrative work activities, enumerates the knowledges, skills and abilities and personal characteristics required for successful full performance of the work, states the required minimum experience and training qualifications, and indicates any special requirement of the class.

“Classification” means the assignment of a position to an appropriate class as determined by the duties, responsibilities, and minimum qualification requirements of the position.

“Reclassification” means the reassignment of a position from one class to another because of a permanent and material change in the duties of that position.

2. Powers and duties

The Commissioner of Personnel shall have the power and duty to:

- a. Classify and reclassify all positions in the civil service of all civil divisions under his/her jurisdiction.
- b. Prepare and maintain class specifications for each class of positions in the competitive, non-competitive, labor, and exempt jurisdictional classes and establish minimum qualifications for each class as appropriate.
- c. Investigate all matters affecting the classification and reclassification of all positions and from time to time review the duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements of all positions under his/her jurisdiction and make revisions in the classification of positions.

3. Classification of vacant positions

The appointing authority, upon request, shall file a prescribed form with the Commissioner of Personnel when a classified position which has or is about to become vacant is to be filled. Such form shall contain a detailed description of the duties and responsibilities of the position to be filled and a statement of suggested minimum entrance qualifications for the position. After an analysis of the position description, the Commissioner of Personnel shall classify the position by assigning it to an appropriate class or, if no appropriate class exists, shall create a new class, assign the position to it, and prepare a class specification for such new class.

4. Classification of new positions

When a new position is to be created, the appointing authority shall file a prescribed form setting forth a detailed description of the duties and responsibilities of the position to be filled and a statement of suggested minimum entrance qualifications for the position prior to the establishment of the position. After an analysis of the position description, the Commissioner of Personnel shall classify the position by assigning it to an appropriate class or, if no appropriate class exists, shall create a new class, assign the position to it and prepare a class specification for such new class.

5. Reclassification of existing positions

- a. Whenever a permanent and material change is made in the duties and responsibilities of any position, the appointing authority shall immediately file with the Commissioner of Personnel a prescribed form setting forth a detailed description of the duties and responsibilities of the position and specifically including the changes therein since the last determination of its classification. After an analysis of the duties and responsibilities and the changes therein, the Commissioner of Personnel shall either confirm the existing classification of the position or shall reclassify the position and reassign it to another appropriate class or, if no appropriate class exists, shall create a new class, assign the position to it and prepare a class specification for such new class.
- b. Any employee in the classified service in a civil division under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Personnel may at any time apply, either through his/her appointing authority or directly, to the Commissioner of Personnel for a reclassification of his/her position in the same manner as prescribed above for an appointing authority. The Commissioner of Personnel shall process such application for reclassification in the manner prescribed above in 5.a.

5. Reclassification of existing positions (continued)

- c. The Commissioner of Personnel may at any time, upon his/her own initiative, review the duties and responsibilities of any position, or group of positions, under his/her jurisdiction. Appointing authorities and employees in the positions under review shall complete a detailed description of the duties and responsibilities of the positions and provide such other information as determined necessary by the Commissioner of Personnel. After an analysis of each such description, the Commissioner of Personnel shall either confirm the existing classification of the position or shall reclassify the position and reassign it to another appropriate class or, if no appropriate class exists, shall create a new class, assign the position to it, and prepare a class specification for such new class.

6. Notice and appeals

The Commissioner of Personnel shall give reasonable notice of any proposal or application for a change in classification to the appointing authority and to the employee or employees affected thereby. Any person desiring to submit facts orally or in writing in connection with the reclassification of any position shall be afforded reasonable opportunity to do so. The Commissioner of Personnel shall then determine the proper classification of the position. No employee, either by classification or reclassification, change of title or otherwise, shall be promoted, demoted, transferred, suspended, or reinstated except in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Service Law and these Rules.

RULE XXIV*

GRADING OF POSITIONS

Each civil division with positions in the classified service under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Personnel shall provide him/her with a current compensation plan and/or labor agreement setting forth the salary grades and compensation ranges for each position in the classified service of such civil division.

*Formerly Rule XXII; renumbered, effective 1.9.70
February 10, 1987 (February 4, 1976)

RULE XXV*

PROHIBITION AGAINST QUESTIONS ELICITING INFORMATION
CONCERNING POLITICAL AFFILIATION

No question in any examination or application or other proceeding by the Commissioner of Personnel or his/her examiners shall be so framed as to elicit information concerning, nor shall any other attempt be made to ascertain, the political opinions or affiliations of any applicant, competitor, or eligible, and all disclosures thereof shall be disregarded by the Commissioner of Personnel and his/her examiners. No discrimination shall be exercised, threatened, or promised against or in favor of any applicant, competitor, or eligible because of his political opinions or affiliations.

*Formerly Rule XXIII; renumbered, effective 1.9.70
February 10, 1987 (January 7, 1983)

RULE XXVI

LAYOFF OF COMPETITIVE CLASS EMPLOYEES

1. For the purpose of this Rule the following terms shall mean:
 - a. “Direct line of promotion” shall be strictly construed in that in order to be considered as direct line all titles must have the same generic root.
 - b. “Next lower occupied title” shall mean the title in direct line of promotion immediately below the title from which the incumbent is suspended or demoted, unless no one is serving in that title in that layoff unit, in which case it shall be the closest lower title in direct line of promotion in that layoff unit in which one or more persons do serve.
 - c. “Layoff unit” shall mean each department under a separate appointing authority in the County or in a town, each village, each school district, each public library, each special district, each authority, and the community college. Authorities and special districts shall be deemed to be separate civil divisions.
 - d. “Satisfactory service” shall mean service by an employee during which he did not receive an “Unsatisfactory” performance rating and was not found guilty of misconduct or incompetency pursuant to Section 75 of the Civil Service Law which resulted in the imposition of any of the following penalties upon such employee:
 - (1) Dismissal from the service, or
 - (2) Suspension without pay for a period exceeding one month, or
 - (3) Demotion in grade and title.
 - e. “Permanent service”
 - (1) Permanent service shall start on that date of the incumbent’s original appointment on a permanent basis in the classified service; however, in the case of disabled veterans, the date of original permanent appointment is considered to be 60 months earlier than the actual date, while non-disabled veterans are considered to have been appointed 30 months earlier than their actual date of appointment. For the purposes of this Rule the definition of what constitutes a veteran or disabled veteran is contained in Section 85 of the Civil Service Law.

- (2) A resignation followed by a reinstatement or reappointment more than one year subsequent to the resignation constitutes a break in service. The original appointment date is to be determined from the date of reemployment; the prior service would not count.
- (3) Temporary or provisional service preceding the original permanent appointment does not count. However, temporary or provisional employment immediately preceded and followed by permanent classified service employment does not interrupt continuous service.
- (4) The permanent service of any employee who was transferred from another civil division shall start on the date of his/her original permanent appointment in the classified service in the other civil division.
- (5) If an employee was covered-in to a classified position upon acquisition by a civil division of an agency in which he/she was employed, his/her seniority begins on the effective date of the cover-in. As between that employee and others covered-in on the same date, they shall have the seniority held by them as among themselves in the agency before the cover-in.

2. Suspension

- a. When an occupied position in the competitive class is abolished, suspension is to be made from among those employees holding the same title in the same layoff unit as the abolished position.
- b. Among permanent employees, the order of suspension is the inverse of the order of their original permanent appointments in the classified service. See above definition of permanent service for veterans and disabled veterans. An exception to this rule is that the blind have absolute retention rights but only in their job status.
- c. A blind person may not back-date his/her permanent service if he/she also happens to be either a veteran or disabled veteran.
- d. A person is considered blind if he/she is so certified by the Commission for the Blind and Visually Handicapped of the New York State Department of Social Services.

2. Suspension (continued)

- e. When two or more permanent incumbents of positions in a specific title are suspended, demoted, or displaced at the same time, the order in which they shall be entitled to displace shall be determined by their respective retention standing, with those having the greater retention standing entitled to displace first.
- f. When several employees were originally appointed on a permanent basis on the same day, their retention rights shall be determined by their rank on the eligible list from which they were appointed; that person having the highest rank having greater retention rights over those having lower ranks.
- g. All temporary, provisional, and contingent permanent employees occupying these positions must be let go before any permanent employee is suspended from such positions, provided, however, that all temporary and provisional employees be let go before any contingent permanent employees in such positions.
- h. Probationary employees occupying such positions in the same title must also be suspended before any permanent employee in the layoff unit in that title who has completed his/her probationary period. Probationary employees do, however, have superior retention rights to those of contingent permanent, temporary, and provisional employees.
- i. The order of suspension among probationary employees shall follow the same principles as that among permanent employees.

3. Vertical bumping

- a. Vertical bumping occurs when an employee in a specific title to which there is a direct line of promotion, who is himself/herself suspended or displaced, displaces an employee in the next lower occupied title in direct line of promotion in the same layoff unit having the least seniority if the employee who seeks to displace has greater retention standing.
- b. Where the layoff involves more than one position in the title, the order of displacement will be the inverse of the order of suspension. That is, the most senior of the suspended employees will be the first to displace. This shall apply to both vertical bumping and retreat.

3. Vertical bumping (continued)

- c. If an employee refuses to displace a junior incumbent he/she must be laid off. This, however, does not protect the junior incumbent from being compared in retention standing with other incumbents if other positions at the higher level are being abolished.
- d. When a next lower title has been occupied by means of displacement regardless of when the displacement into the title has occurred, it is considered to be occupied for further displacement purposes; however, a next lower title which has all of its positions abolished at the same time as positions are abolished at the higher level cannot be considered as occupied. A title which is occupied by an incumbent—temporary, provisional, contingent permanent, probationary, or permanent—is considered occupied for the purposes of this section.

4. Retreat

- a. Retreat occurs when and only when there is no lower occupied position in direct line of promotion at any level.
- b. An employee may retreat by displacing the incumbent with the least retention right who is serving in a position in the title in which the displacing incumbent last served on a permanent basis prior to service in the title from which he/she is currently suspended or displaced. Retreat may only occur where the position in the title formerly held by the displacing incumbent is occupied in the competitive class, in the same layoff unit, and at a lower salary grade; the service of the displacing incumbent while in the former title must have been satisfactory, and the junior incumbent must have less retention standing than the displacing incumbent.
- c. The service of the displacing incumbent in the title to which he/she is retreating need not have been in the same layoff unit as the one from which he/she is displaced.
- d. An employee may also displace by retreat to a position in a title he/she last served on a permanent basis although he/she had intervening service in other titles as long as his/her service in each of the intervening titles was on other than a permanent basis. He/She may also displace by retreat to a position which does not count in the computation of his/her continuous service.

4. Retreat (continued)

- e. Where a title change has been effected to better describe the duties of a position but the duties have not substantially changed since the suspended employee last served in that title the new title will for retreat purposes be deemed to be the former title.

- 5. An employee who refuses to accept an appointment afforded by displacement for whatever reason waives all rights regarding the displacement; however, this employee's name will be entered on an appropriate preferred list.

6. Preferred list standing

Preferred list standing for competitive class employees on and after October 1, 1972 shall be as follows:

- a. On and after October 1, 1972 those employees whose positions were abolished prior to that date and who therefore had their standing on the preferred list determined by the date of their original appointment on a permanent basis in the competitive class shall retain among themselves such preferred list standing including the preferences to which they were entitled as blind, disabled veterans, and non-disabled veterans.
- b. Blind employees whose positions are abolished on or after October 1, 1972 shall have their preferred list standing determined by the date of their original appointment on a permanent basis in the classified service, whether or not they are also disabled veterans or non-disabled veterans, provided, however, that the blind shall be granted absolute preference on the preferred list over all other employees except those disabled veterans and blind employees whose positions were abolished prior to October 1, 1972 with whose names theirs shall be interfiled.
- c. Disabled veterans whose positions are abolished on or after October 1, 1972 shall have their preferred list standing determined by the date of their original appointment on a permanent basis in the classified service, provided, however, that the date of such original appointment shall be deemed to be 60 months earlier than the actual date, determined in accordance with Section 30 of the General Construction Law.

6. Preferred list standing (continued)

- d. Non-disabled veterans whose positions are abolished on or after October 1, 1972 shall have their preferred list standing determined by the date of their original appointment on a permanent basis in the classified service, provided, however, that the date of such original appointment shall be deemed to be 30 months earlier than the actual date, determined in accordance with Section 30 of the General Construction Law.
 - e. Non-veterans whose positions are abolished on or after October 1, 1972 shall have their preferred list standing determined by the date of their original appointment on a permanent basis in the classified service.
 - f. The names of all persons encompassed by paragraphs c., d., and e. above whose positions are abolished on or after October 1, 1972 shall be interfiled on the preferred list with the names of all non-veterans whose positions were abolished prior to October 1, 1972.
7. An appointing authority may take such steps as it may deem necessary in order to secure binding written commitments in advance of suspension, demotion, or displacement from employees potentially affected by such suspension, demotion, or displacement as to their willingness to accept reassignment or displacement.
