A Message from the Supervisor

Dear Residents,

Once again, our dedicated staff at the Office of Parks and Recreation has put together a summer program filled with a diverse range of family-friendly activities and events designed for children, adults, and seniors of all fitness levels. Please take a minute to browse the brochure and see what interests you. But register early, as space can be limited in some of the programs

The Town Board remains committed to providing all of our residents with affordable programs that meet the needs of our community and are always looking for ways to enhance the recreational experience in Orangetown. If you have any suggestions for future programs, please contact the Office of Parks and Recreation at (845) 359-6503.

Summer is the best season to take advantage of our exceptional recreational programs, parks, and facilities. From the splash pad to the pickleball courts, there is so much to do right here in Orangetown.

Have a fantastic summer, may it be filled with memorable experiences!

Sincerely,

Teresa M. Kenny
